

Clinical eCompanion

Information for primary care

What is Clinical eCompanion?

A search engine for answering real-time, clinical questions

FREE information gathered from current and reliable sources, like...

"I found [Clinical eCompanion] really easy to use and I appreciated the results drawn from multiple different resources."

<http://ecompanion.pitt.edu/>

For more information, or to request training, contact:
Kate Flewelling, Executive Director, NNLM MAR
flewkate@pitt.edu

This point-of-care information tool was developed by librarians at the University of Pittsburgh, Health Sciences Library System with Federal funds from the National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services, under Contract No. HHS-N-276-2011-00003-C and maintained under cooperative agreement number UG4LM012342 with the University of Pittsburgh, Health Sciences Library System. The content is solely the responsibility of the authors and does not necessarily represent the official views of the National Institutes of Health.