

NNLM MAR Academic SAG Meeting Minutes
August 7, 2017

TOPIC	DISCUSSIONS/RECOMMENDATIONS	ACTIONS TO BE TAKEN
Attendees	Nancy Glassman, Sherry Morgan, Janet Pease, Michelle Price, Kate Flewelling (NNLM MAR), Elaina Vitale (NNLM MAR)	The meeting came to order at 10:30 am.
SAG member updates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David Nolfi sent updates that his course, Learning to Liaise with Health Professions, was approved for MLA CE. David will be teaching the 4 hour version of this course at MLA in 2018, and he'll be offering a version for MAR February 7, 2018, from 2-3:30. • Karla Block – no updates • Elsa Bruguier sent updates that her library is sponsoring two events during the Fall 2017 term to reach out to health sciences students and faculty, in an effort to increase awareness of library resources. • Jackie Bryant – no updates • Nancy Glassman shared updates from her library of successful projects with their 3D printer, and news about a Hackathon. Nancy also asked the group about their experience automating and sharing information on NIH Public Access Policies. • Sherry Morgan shared news that a CDC Guideline she worked on was published. Sherry also shared some updates from UPenn about some possible 	Register for David's MAR online training here, and spread the word! SAG may discuss work with NIH Public Access Policies at a future meeting. Elaina hopes to announce news of new staff member at fall meeting!

	health corners and health activities the library will be participating in. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Janet Pease updated the group on some hiring her library is in the midst of, and shared that two Syracuse librarians attended the CLRC systematic review workshop MAR funded, and some of the work they'll be doing as a result. • Michelle Price shared that she was offering a segment of an NNLM NTO training--Teaching Topics: Success, Flops, and Far-out Ideas. Michelle also shared that she and her colleagues are in the midst of strategic planning and systematic reviews. Michelle also attended the CLRC systematic review workshop. • Elaina Vitale gave some general MAR updates, and updated the group on the ongoing Health Professions Coordinator search.
Libraries and Opioids: Librarians as First Responders	Elaina led a discussion of recent news coverage regarding librarians as first responders (including Philadelphia's Free Library). Elaina shared NNLM NER webinar series and some relevant and useful NLM/NIH links (see meeting slides). The group discussed possible outreach ideas, including involving different academic departments in educating campus communities of various aspects. SAG members shared thoughts on their specific regional areas and outreach programs that have been utilized. Michelle is considering organizing a summit at St. John Fisher to address opioids in her area.	SAG members will share NNLM NER webinar series. Michelle will update SAG at next meeting on summit organization. SAG will continue discussion and Elaina will provide NNLM updates as applicable.

NNLM RD3	Elaina shared updates about the NNLM data management site for librarians, RD3 . Elaina gave a demo of this new resource for SAG attendees. She requested SAG feedback on resource.	SAG members will provide feedback as necessary, and will share site with interested parties. SAG members will send regional happenings to Elaina for addition to MAR regional RD3 page.
Libraries Transform campaign	Elaina shared news that NNLM has partnered with ALA to create a Libraries Transform toolkit with health messaging. The toolkit is not available yet, but SAG members can see similar messaging here .	Elaina will share news of toolkit availability.
Wrap-up	Next meeting to be held in November 2017.	Elaina will send poll in October 2017 to determine member availability and schedule next meeting. The meeting was adjourned at 11:30 am.