

Year 2

- Over 2,000 CE credits awarded; 36 Training activities; more than 1,300 training participants
- 97 % of class participants indicated that they learned a new skill and planned to use it in the future

nto@utah.edu

Tap here to add a caption

NTO CLASSES

Developed on-demand PubMed Essentials Tutorial with PubMed Working group
Piloted and offered Bioinformatics and Biology Essentials for Librarians
Developed and taught Build a Better Class with Instructional Design
Updated Discovering TOXNET
Produced 3 webinars on core NCBI databases
Research Data Management for Librarians Course and Capstone

“This was very helpful - thank you! I really appreciated the handout to take notes on, and the live demos to try. I liked the active learning format so I kept paying attention throughout!”

NTO PROJECTS

Coordinated Y2 national class offerings
Piloted follow-up evaluation with NEO
Enhance communication with monthly internal newsletter
Improve NNLM instruction and expertise through NNLM Staff Development and Webinars that Work training
Document All of Us course creation process
Needs Assessment for Moodle 3.4
Collaborated with NWSO on LMS & LOR requirements
Updated Guidelines for Classes

ON THE HORIZON

Develop PubMed learning path
Revise and revamp CHIS courses
Comprehensive analysis of the completed training evaluation forms
Internal NNLM Staff Training: Moodle, Learning Objects Repository, NLM Resources, instructional best practices, on-boarding and refreshers
Establish standards for course currency and quality