Below you will find resources that were utilized in the development and promotion of the National Network of Libraries of Medicine’s course: From Problem to Prevention: Evidence-Based Public Health.

GENERAL COURSE MATERIALS

- National Network of Libraries of Medicine Regional Offices
  https://nnlm.gov/regions
- National Network of Libraries of Medicine Public Health Coordination Office
  https://nnlm.gov/nphco
- Public Health Definition
  http://www.apha.org/what-is-public-health
- Ten Great Public Health Achievements in the 20th Century
  https://www.cdc.gov/about/history/tengpha.htm
- Public Health Accreditation Board
  http://www.phaboard.org/
- Evidence-Based Public Health Implementation Toolkit
  http://www.astho.org/Evidence-Based-Public-Health/Toolkit/
- Fielding JE and Briss PA. Promoting evidence-based public health: can we have better evidence and more action? Health Affairs. 2006;25(4):969-978

COMMUNITY NEEDS ASSESSMENT

- Community Toolbox
  http://ctb.ku.edu/en/assessing-community-needs-and-resources
- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
  https://www.cdc.gov/stltpublichealth/cha/index.html
- Health Services Research Information Central
- National Network of Libraries of Medicine
  https://nnlm.gov/neo/professional-development/guides
LITERATURE/INTERVENTIONS

- PubMed

- PubMed Health

- Community Guide
  https://www.thecommunityguide.org/

- SAMHSA’s NREPP
  http://nrepp.samhsa.gov/landing.aspx

- National Guideline Clearinghouse
  https://www.guideline.gov/

EVALUATION

- Community Toolbox
  http://ctb.ku.edu/en/evaluating-initiative

- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
  https://www.cdc.gov/eval/resources/index.htm

- National Network of Libraries of Medicine
  https://nnlm.gov/neo/professional-development/guides